CitiDirect is an electronic banking application that has various degrees of implementation. This delivery is responsible for transactions of Corporate Trade. The system supports a Product Inquiry and a transaction Initiation. Trade finance consists of functional areas that include Letters of Credit, Bill of Lading, Invoice, Insurance Policy.

CitiDirect encompasses a wide variety of technologies. It is an N-Tier architecture involving a Thin Client, Web Server, Application Server and Data Server. The Client uses Java applets to accept input from the user. These applets communicate with ASP running on the Internet Information Server. The Session C++ COM object called the CASA Session Client instantiated by ASP picks up the name value pairs through an IIS supplied COM interface for Request/Response. This object then spawns an Encina Context and establishes a DCE RPC with the CASA Session server (Application server). The CASA Session Server passes these Name/Value pairs to a Java Esession COM object which then uses the data access layer to fetch data from heterogenous data sources. The entire session runs as a single Encina Transaction. Encina is used to manage Heterogenous Resource Managers.

ELC (Emerging Local Corporates) is a credit application that serves small business segments. The software consists of a Visual Basic Front End and an Oracle Back End and runs from a central data center located in Singapore. The application is a typical workflow application that consists in the process from initial tracking of potential customers through a SIEBEL sales system to final closure of the credit line which is reflected in the CITIBANK back end systems.

We are planning for the Class of '94 an intensive training program designed and conducted with the participation of some of Oracle's senior management. We anticipate that your talents and intelligence, coupled with your exposure to our executives, will enable you to rapidly become a productive Oracle team member.

If you accept this offer, Oracle will reimburse the reasonable, documented cost that you incur for the transportation of your household goods and personal belongings, subject to the current Human Resources guidelines. You agree to repay Oracle if you leave the company within one year of your start date.

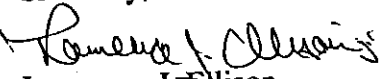

To accept this offer, please sign the enclosed Employment Agreement (be sure to confirm your intended start date), the Proprietary Information Agreement and all other documents required by the Human Resources Department and return them to the attention of Lindsay White Quintero in Human Resources at 500 Oracle Parkway, Box 659501, Redwood City, CA 94065. Employment and employee benefits begin only after you have signed these documents and they have been received by Human Resources.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call Lindsay White Quintero at (415) 506-3082 or Greg Doherty at (415) 506-6496. This offer remains open until March 9, 1994. We look forward to having you begin work with us.

Sincerely,
